The Exchanger.

BY the Proclamation it is cleere; That euery Piece not wanting in waight aboue the Remedies declared in the said Proclamation, viz.

Euery Piece of——

Shill.	d.		Graines.
33.			9. Grai.
22.		Not	6. Grai.
16.	6	wanting a-	5. Grai.
11.		boue-	4. Grai.
5.	6.		2. Grai.
2.	9.		1. Grai.

Is Currant, and then was and ought to be accepted in payment with abatement of Two-pence a Graine, for euery graine exceeding the Remedie allowed.

Now there is no alteration made concerning theſe Pieces, by the laſt Proclamation, but they doe and remaine in the ſame ſtate and degree, (Money payable vpon the ſame allowance or deduction of Graines,) as they were before the ſame: as in

Shill.		Graines
30.	Remedy not to exceed	4. ½
20.		3.
15.		2.
10.		2
5.		1
2. 9d.

All which Remedies ſhall be allowed in euery Piece accordingly, the ſame wanting no more, being to paſſe as if it were of full waight and juſt value. But if any ſuch piece of Coyne ſhall lacke of the true weight thereof, aboue the Remedies expreſſed. Then it ſhall be brought or Carried to the Exchanges or Mint, there againe to be molten and conuerted into Coyne.

The

This laſt Proclamation, expreſly and by plaine termes, Extends vnto, and Comprehends onely ſuch Pieces, which at the time of the ſaid Proclamation were Current, for, and at the rates expreſſed in the ſame, viz. At XXX. ſhillings, XX. ſhillings, XV. ſhillings, X. ſhillings, V. ſhillings, and II ſhillings, vj pence. And therefore, for as much as all vn-euen Pieces of Iacobus, halfe Quarters, and Eights, were at the time of the ſaid laſt Proclamation Currant for other values, viz. For XXXIII. ſhillings, XXII. ſhillings, XVI. ſhillings vj. pence, XI. ſhillings, V. ſhillings vj. pence, II. ſhillings ix. pence. It is moſt cleere, That the ſame Pieces are not at all comprehended, or altered by the ſaid laſt Proclamation; but doe and are now Currant and payable vpon the ſame Allowances and deductions for want of waight, as they were before the publiſhing of the ſame. And the rather, For that there were then Pices Currant for the values mentioned in the laſt Proclamation whereof the ſame did diſpoſe, leauing the others to bee in ſuch degree and ſtate as they were: As alſo for that, The principall intention might bee to preſerue vpright his Majeſties, euen Coynes. And therefore, the Tender of ſuch Pieces, vpon allowance and deduction for want of waight agreeable to the former Proclamation, is good and not confronted by the latter: But ought to bee accepted of vpon all payments of bonds, Bills of Exchange, and contracts, and duties, whatſoeuer and whereſoeuer. And this agreeth with the generall Opinion of Lawyers, And the moſt vſuall practiſe of all men, and as Examples heere followes.
